

LEADING PROGRESS IN THE EARLY YEARS

You will learn:

- What makes an effective and reflective leader,
- How to get the best from a team, including coaching and supervision,
- How to love data and use it to evaluate quality and improve outcomes,
How to make your vision come to life in your school, taking your team with you
- How to Problem solve and manage conflict.

Developed by Jane Cook, author of Leadership and Management in the Early Years (MAG 2013) Leading Progress has had 100% positive feedback from 6 different London Boroughs over the last 5 years. This practical, interactive course is designed to meet the particular needs of teachers working in the early years, to strengthen practice and build leadership capacity in this vital phase of education. The course is balanced to provide useful tools for taking into your school as well drawing on as current leadership theory. The course tutors all have extensive experience of working as teachers and leaders in the early years. The next Leading Progress course begins on November 24th 201 with a full day conference followed by 5 half days (1-4 pm) finishing June 2018. The cost, including handbook and full Myers Briggs assessment on leadership styles and skills is £400. The venue is Robert Owen Nursery School & Children's Centre, Greenwich SE10 0EA
